

LET'S DO IT TOGETHER: WORDLIST

- assign - to select for a duty or office; appoint for a task.

Let's assign our roles in this group.

- commitment - the state of being bound emotionally or intellectually to a course of action or to another person or persons

He has a profound commitment to the family.

- conquer - to overcome (an enemy, army, etc.); defeat

They have conquered all their enemies in World War I.

- consider - to think carefully about.

Consider my advice, it might be helpful.

- contribution – the act of giving, devoting oneself for something, helping.

Her contribution to this project was really big.

- equal - having the same quantity, measure, or value as another.

Two plus two equals four.

- establish - to set up; found.

First we have to establish rules and only then start working.

- fair - consistent with rules, logic, or ethics

It is not fair when one person works for all the group.

- outline - to give the main features or general idea of something.

- participation - the act of taking part or sharing in something

Teachers often encourage class participation.

- resolve - to bring to a usually successful conclusion

Resolve a conflict.

- wary - watchful, cautious, or alert.

Children are taught to be wary of strangers.