

WORKSHEET

Listening comprehension

Task 1. Listen to Elisa Di Benedetto talking about why she immigrated to London. What were the push and pull factors that influenced her decision to leave Italy? Take notes while listening:

Why did Elisa Di Benedetto emigrate from Italy? _____

Push factors	Pull factors

Task 2. Listen to Elisa's story again and circle the correct answers. Look through the sentences before listening.

1. She left Italy when she was 21/ 23.
2. She arrived in London 13th November / 30th November 1957.
3. She wanted to go to London to find a job/ to visit relatives.
4. She left Italy because there was no work/ too much work.
5. She arrived in London at Paddington Station/ Victoria Station.
6. She got a job as a nurse/ as a teacher.

Speaking

Task 3. Discuss the following issues:

1. Would you like to live in London? Why? Why not?
2. In developing countries people move from rural to urban areas. In developed countries people often move from the city to the country. Why?

Writing

Task 4. Write a paragraph of 100-150 words for a school magazine about why people might want to immigrate to Lithuania. In the paragraph discuss the following issues:

- where they come from;
- what the push factors are;
- what the pull factors are.